FORMAL FESTIVITIES: Wedding season is truly getting into the swing, now, although it could probably be proven that weddings are no longer the province of spring and early summer. Next up on the formal-planning calendar: A Soolip Wedding 2010, a gathering of vendors (think linens, invitations, pastries, and more) plus a Monique Lhuillier wedding gown runway show. There will be other nuptial-minded experts on hand, so show with your etiquette queries. TIME AND PLACE: The bouquets will be thrown at Vibiana downtown on Sunday, February 21st.
