

To reflect the couple's engagement in Paris and his love of the film "The Red Balloon," bursts of red, black and white damask and the symbolic Eiffel Tower are diffused throughout the design of the celebration.

details of distinction

Ceremony

• FEATURED VENDORS •

ernie photography
 evokephotography.com
 (photography)

• OTHER CONTRIBUTING VENDORS •

(location) vitiana (floral design, rentals) sharon design (coordinator) save the date events (invites) chair covers by ivory grace (stationery) lennie gifts & stationery (caterer) command performance catering group (cake) nancy kay's connections (videographer) kurtug films (gown designer) shin fu tochi (bride shoes) christian oler (hair & makeup) jayne hair style (understand dresses) sara by allen schwartz

their love story

Kim's move from Northern California to Los Angeles and mutual friends brought Ernie and Kim together at a Hollywood nightclub in 2006. Over the next year and a half the pair adventured all over the United States. It was an overseas excursion in the summer of 2008 to Europe that became their trip of a lifetime. While picnicking beneath the Eiffel Tower Ernie presented Kim with a scrapbook of their experiences together. Each page of the book was titled with a letter that spelled out "Will You Marry Me?"

SHARE THE LOVE

Read their story, link to vendors, see more photos. More of this real wedding appearing in 2011 on CaliforniaWeddingWave.com