The bride, 26, will continue to use her name professionally. She is a doctoral student in clinical psychology at the University of Southern California.

She graduated summa cum laude from Barnard College, and received a master's degree in clinical psychology at U.S.C.

Her parents are both novelists. Her father's most recent book is "Victims." He is also a clinical psychologist and a clinical professor of pediatrics at the Keck School of Medicine of U.S.C. He is an adjunct professor of psychology at U.S.C. Her mother's most recent book is "Gun Games."

The bridegroom, 27, is a candidate for a master's degree in educational counseling and marriage and family therapy at U.S.C. He graduated from Washington University in St. Louis.

His father is an anesthesiologist at the Veterans Affairs medical center in Cleveland, and is a clinical assistant professor of anesthesiology at Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine, also in Cleveland. His mother was an occupational therapist at the Mount Sinai Hospital clinic in Beachwood, Ohio.
